

Bio Mireya F. Loewe, Texas Water Development Board

Mireya Loewe joined the Texas Water Development Board (TWDB) in 2008, where she has been serving as Project Lead for the Economically Distressed Areas Program. Prior to joining the TWDB, she was a ratings analyst for the Moody's Corporation - Public Finance Group, South West Regional Office in Dallas, Texas. She came to the Moody's Corporation following eight years with the North American Development Bank, where she served as program manager and project manager for California, Arizona, and New Mexico.